China Tariffs

(Last Updated July 28, 2026)

This list is a reference for the additional duties on products of China pursuant to the section 301 investigation of China's acts, policies, and practices related to technology transfer, intellectual property, and innovation.

This list does not include the headings for the additional duties pursuant to section 301 investigations of acts, policies, and practices of various economies related to the failure of each economy to impose and effectively enforce a prohibition on the importation of goods produced with forced labor. For information on these Section 301 duties, see U.S. note 52, subchapter III, chapter 99.

The table below lists the HTS subheadings in chapters 01 through 97 that are covered by the additional tariffs on products of China under section 301 and the applicable HTS heading in subchapter III of chapter 99. For information on these additional tariffs, please see U.S. notes 20 and 31 and the related headings and subheadings of subchapter III of chapter 99.

Search for an 8-digit subheading of interest: if it appears on this list, products in that subheading are subject to an additional duty under section 301 if they are also products of China. Product exclusions granted by the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) are found in U.S. note 20 to subchapter III of chapter 99.

Additional information may be obtained from the USTR section 301 hotline – (202) 395-5725. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) determines all matters relating to tariff treatment of imported goods and their country of origin. CBP can be consulted for procedural or other questions at traderemedy@cbp.dhs.gov. You may also wish to seek an electronic ruling on classification or country of origin from CBP at erulings.cbp.gov.

This table is provided for reference only. Users should also consult the HTS and the related Federal Register notices for the official list of covered products.
