U.S. Notes (con.)

- (d) Heading 9903.74.03 applies to medium- and heavy-duty vehicles described in this subdivision, upon approval from the Secretary of Commerce. For any medium- and heavy-duty vehicle that is classified in one of the subheadings of the HTSUS listed in subdivision (b) of this note and eligible for special tariff treatment under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), importers of such vehicles may submit documentation to the Secretary of Commerce identifying the amount of U.S. content in each vehicle imported into the United States. "U.S. content" refers to the value of the medium- or heavy-duty vehicle attributable to U.S.-based activity supporting domestic production, as determined by the Secretary of Commerce. Thereafter, the Secretary may approve imports of such vehicles to be eligible to apply the ad valorem rates of duty exclusively to the value of the non-U.S. content of the vehicle. The non-U.S. content of the vehicle shall be calculated by subtracting the value of the U.S. content in a vehicle from the total value of the vehicle.

Any importer entering a medium- and heavy-duty vehicle covered by this note under heading 9903.74.03 shall provide any information that may be required, and in such form, as is deemed necessary by CBP in order to permit the administration of this heading.

Goods for which entry is claimed under a provision of chapter 98 and which are subject to the additional duties prescribed herein shall be eligible for and subject to the terms of such provision and applicable CBP regulations, except that duties under subheading 9802.00.60 shall be assessed based upon the full value of the imported article. No claim for entry or for any duty exemption or reduction shall be allowed for the vehicles enumerated in subdivision (b) of this note under a provision of chapter 99 that may set forth a lower rate of duty or provide duty-free treatment, taking into account information supplied by CBP, but any additional duty prescribed in any provision of this subchapter or subchapter IV of chapter 99 shall be imposed in addition to the duty in heading 9903.74.03. All antidumping, countervailing, or other duties and charges applicable to such goods shall continue to be imposed in addition to the duty in heading 9903.74.03.

- (e) Heading 9903.74.05 applies to entries of articles that are classifiable under provisions of the HTSUS enumerated in subdivision (b) of this note but that are not medium- and heavy-duty vehicles.
- (f) Heading 9903.74.06 applies to the U.S. content of medium- and heavy-duty vehicles described in subdivision (d) of this note, upon approval from the Secretary of Commerce.
- (g) Heading 9903.74.07 applies to all entries of medium- and heavy-duty vehicles from all countries classifiable in the provisions enumerated in subdivisions (b) or (c) of this note that were manufactured in a year at least 25 years prior to the year of the date of entry.
- (h) Except as provided for in headings 9903.74.10 and 9903.74.11, headings 9903.74.08 and 9903.74.09 provide the ordinary customs duty treatment applicable to all entries of medium- and heavy-duty vehicle parts from all countries classifiable in the provisions enumerated in subdivision (i) or that meet the requirements of subdivision (j) of this note.

Except as provided for in subdivision (k) to this note, for any such products that are eligible for special tariff treatment under any of the free trade agreements or preference programs listed in general note 3(c)(i) to the tariff schedule, the duties provided in headings 9903.74.08 and 9903.74.09 shall be collected in addition to any special rate of duty otherwise applicable under the appropriate tariff subheading. Goods for which entry is claimed under a provision of chapter 98 and that are subject to the additional duties prescribed herein shall be eligible for and subject to the terms of such provision and applicable CBP regulations, except that duties under subheading 9802.00.60 shall be assessed based upon the full value of the imported article. No claim for entry or for any duty exemption or reduction shall be allowed for the medium- and heavy-duty vehicle parts in subdivisions (i) or (j) of this note under a provision of chapter 99 that may set forth a lower rate of duty or provide duty-free treatment, taking into account information supplied by CBP, but any additional duty prescribed in any provision of this subchapter or subchapter IV of chapter 99 shall be imposed in addition to the duty in headings 9903.74.08 and 9903.74.09.

All antidumping, countervailing, or other duties and charges applicable to such goods shall continue to be imposed in addition to the duty in headings 9903.74.08 and 9903.74.09, except that entries of medium- and heavy-duty vehicle parts shall not be subject to:

- (a) Except as provided for in headings 9903.79.02–9903.79.09, heading 9903.79.01 provides the ordinary customs duty treatment of semiconductor articles of all countries as described in subdivision (b) of the note.

For any such products that are eligible for special tariff treatment under any of the free trade agreements or preference programs listed in general note 3(c)(i) to the tariff schedule, the duties provided in heading 9903.79.01 shall be collected in addition to any special rate of duty otherwise applicable under the appropriate tariff subheading.  - (3) the additional duties imposed on entries of medium- and heavy-duty vehicles under headings 9903.74.01, 9903.74.02 and 9903.74.03;
 - (4) the additional duties imposed on entries of parts of medium- and heavy-duty vehicles under headings 9903.74.08 and 9903.74.09;
 - (5) the additional duties imposed on entries of articles of aluminum, of steel, or of copper or derivative aluminum or steel articles provided for in headings 9903.82.02 and 9903.82.04–9903.82.26;
 - (6) the additional duties imposed on entries of articles the product of Canada under heading 9903.01.10;
 - (7) the additional duties imposed on entries of articles the product of Mexico under heading 9903.01.01; and
 - (8) the additional duties imposed on entries of articles under headings 9903.01.24–9903.01.76 and 9903.02.01–9903.02.71.
- (b) For the purposes of this note, “semiconductor articles” refers to imported products meeting certain technical parameters and that are classifiable in the provisions of the HTSUS enumerated in this subdivision:

8471.50
8471.80
8473.30

To be included within the definition of semiconductor articles, the imported products must be a logic integrated circuit, or an article that contains a logic integrated circuit, that meets the technical parameters of having:

- (1) a total processing performance greater than 14,000 and less than 17,500, and a total DRAM bandwidth greater than 4,500 GB/s and less than 5,000 GB/s; or
- (2) a total processing performance greater than 20,800 and less than 21,100, and total DRAM bandwidth greater than 5,800 GB/s and less than 6,200 GB/s.

For the purposes of this note, total processing performance (TPP) is $2 \times \text{“MacTOPS”} \times \text{“bit length of the operation,”}$ aggregated over all processing units on the integrated circuit. “MacTOPS” is the theoretical peak number of Tera

(10^{12}) operations per second for multiply-accumulate computation ($D = A \times B + C$). The 2 in the TPP formula is based on the industry convention of counting one multiply-accumulate computation ($D = A \times B + C$) as two operations for purpose of product datasheets. Therefore, $2 \times$ “MacTOPS” may correspond to the reported TOPS or FLOPS on a product datasheet. The “bit length of the operation” for a multiply-accumulate computation is the largest bit-length of the inputs to the multiply operation. The TPP for the imported product is determined by aggregating the TPP for each processing unit on the integrated circuit: $TPP = TPP1 + TPP2 + \dots + TPPn$ (where n is the number of processing units on the integrated circuit). The rate of “MacTOPS” is to be calculated at its maximum value theoretically possible. The rate of “MacTOPS” is assumed to be the highest value the manufacturer claims in annual or brochure for the integrated circuit. For example, a “TPP” threshold of 4800 can be met with 600 tera integer operations (or 2×300 “MacTOPS”) at 8 bits or 300 tera FLOPS (or 2×150 “MacTOPS”) at 16 bits. If the integrated circuit is designed for MAC computation with multiple bit lengths that achieve different “TPP” values, the highest “TPP” value should be used. For integrated circuits that provide processing of both sparse and dense matrices, the “TPP” values are the values for processing of dense matrices (e.g., without sparsity).

For the purposes of this note, “total DRAM bandwidth” refers to the aggregate memory bandwidth in gigabytes per second between the integrated circuit (IC) and dynamic random access memory (DRAM) ICs, including copackaged DRAM ICs and non-copackaged DRAM ICs. Copackaged DRAM ICs include, for example, high bandwidth memory (HBM). Non-copackaged DRAM ICs include, for example, graphics double data rate (GDDR) ICs. “Total DRAM bandwidth” does not include bandwidth from DRAM ICs accessed remotely over an interconnect medium.

- (c) Heading 9903.79.02 applies to entries of articles that are classifiable under provisions of the HTSUS enumerated in subdivision (b) of this note but that do not meet the technical parameters specified in subdivision (b) of this note.
- (d) Certain semiconductor articles that would otherwise meet the requirements of subdivision (b) of this note are excluded from the additional rate of duty pursuant to heading 9903.79.01. Instead, such semiconductor articles are subject to the following headings:
 - (i) Heading 9903.79.03 applies to semiconductor articles for use in U.S. data centers;
 - (ii) Heading 9903.79.04 applies to semiconductor articles for repairs or replacements performed in the United States;
 - (iii) Heading 9903.79.05 applies to semiconductor articles for research and development in the United States involving these chips;
 - (iv) Heading 9903.79.06 applies to semiconductor articles for use by startups in the United States;
 - (v) Heading 9903.79.07 applies to semiconductor articles for use in non-data center consumer electronics applications in the United States, including gaming, personal computing, professional visualization, workstation applications, and automotive applications;
 - (vi) Heading 9903.79.08 applies to semiconductor articles for use in non-data center civil industrial applications in the United States, including factory robotics and industrial machinery; and
 - (vii) Heading 9903.79.09 applies to semiconductor articles for use in United States public sector applications.

For the purposes of this note, a “U.S. data center” refers to a facility that requires greater than 100 megawatts (MW) of new load dedicated to AI inference, training, simulation, or synthetic data generation.

For the purposes of this note, “research and development” is defined as any activity that is (a) a systematic, intensive study directed toward greater knowledge or understanding of the subject studied; (b) a systematic study directed specifically toward applying new knowledge to meet a recognized need; or (c) a systematic application of knowledge toward the production of useful materials, devices, services or methods, and includes design, development and improvement of prototypes and new processes to meet specific requirements.

For the purposes of this note, a “startup” is an “emerging growth company,” as defined at 15 U.S.C. § 77b(a)(19).

40.

- (a) Headings 9903.04.60–9903.04.69 provide the customs duty treatment of imported articles classifiable in one of the provisions of the HTSUS enumerated in subdivision (c) of this note.

These headings are mutually exclusive, such that an imported article will be subject to no more than one of these headings. Pharmaceutical articles, as defined in subdivisions (c)(i)–(iii) of this note, are subject to heading 9903.04.60 unless another of these headings applies.

- (a) Headings 9903.45.30 and 9903.45.31 establish temporary modifications applicable to entries of quartz surface products. For the purposes of this note, the term quartz surface products (“QSP”) means slabs and other surfaces created from a mixture of materials that includes predominately silica (e.g., quartz, quartz powder, cristobalite, glass powder) as well as a resin binder (e.g., an unsaturated polyester). The incorporation of other materials, including, but not limited to, pigments, cement, or other additives does not remove the merchandise from the scope of this note. However, the scope only includes products where the silica content is greater than any other single material, by actual weight. QSP is typically sold as rectangular slabs with a total surface area of approximately 45 to 60 square feet and a nominal thickness of one, two, or three centimeters. However, the scope includes surface products of all other sizes, thicknesses, and shapes. In addition to slabs, the scope includes, but is not limited to, other surfaces such as countertops, backsplashes, vanity tops, bar tops, work tops, tabletops, flooring, wall facing, shower surrounds, fireplace surrounds, mantels, and tiles. QSP may be polished or unpolished, cut or uncut, fabricated or not fabricated, cured or uncured, edged or not edged, finished or unfinished, thermoformed or not thermoformed, packaged or unpackaged, and may have any type of surface finish. In addition, QSP is covered by the scope whether or not it is imported attached to, or in conjunction with, non-subject merchandise such as sinks, sink bowls, vanities, cabinets, and furniture. If QSP is imported attached to, or in conjunction with, such non-subject merchandise, only the QSP is covered by the scope.

Subject merchandise includes material matching the above description that has been finished, packaged, or otherwise fabricated in a third country, including by cutting, polishing, curing, edging, thermoforming, attaching to, or packaging with another product, or any other finishing, packaging or fabrication that would not otherwise remove the merchandise from the

Notwithstanding U.S. note 1 to this subchapter, all products that are subject to the additional ad valorem rates of duty imposed by these headings shall also be subject to the general rates of duty imposed under subheadings in chapters 1 to 97 of the tariff schedule. Except as provided in subdivisions (b) through (k) of this note, all products that are subject to the additional ad valorem rates of duty imposed by headings 9903.05.20–9903.05.84 shall also be subject to any additional duty provided for in this subchapter or in subchapter IV of chapter 99. U.S. Notes (con.)

- (k) As provided in headings 9903.05.38, 9903.05.39, 9903.05.48, 9903.05.49, 9903.05.70, 9903.05.71 and 9903.05.73–9903.05.76, for any good of a member state of the European Union, Japan, South Korea, Switzerland or Taiwan subject to a specific or compound rate of duty under column 1-General, the ad valorem equivalent rate of duty of such good shall be determined by dividing the amount of duty payable under column 1-General by the customs value of the good. For example, if a good were subject to a specific duty of 50 cents per kilogram, and one kilogram of the good were entered with a customs value of $10, then the ad valorem equivalent rate of duty would be obtained by dividing 50 cents by $10, yielding 5 percent. For any good of South Korea for which a specific or compound rate of duty under column 1-Special is properly claimed, the ad valorem equivalent rate of duty shall be determined in the same manner.

For headings 9903.05.39 and 9903.05.76, articles for which the applicable column 1 duty rate is less than 10 percent, the sum of the column 1 duty rate and the additional ad valorem rate of duty is 10 percent ad valorem.

For headings 9903.05.49, 9903.05.71 and 9903.05.74, articles for which the applicable column 1 duty rate is less than 12.5 percent, the sum of the column 1 duty rate and the additional ad valorem rate of duty is 12.5 percent ad valorem.

SUBCHAPTER IV

SAFEGUARD MEASURES PURSUANT TO THE AGREEMENT ON AGRICULTURE AND ADDITIONAL IMPORT RESTRICTIONS ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SECTION 22 OF THE AGRICULTURAL ADJUSTMENT ACT, AS AMENDED

XXII
99-IV-1

U.S. Notes

1. This subchapter contains safeguard measures established pursuant to Article 5 of the Agreement on Agriculture (as approved by section 101 of the Uruguay Round Agreements Act), which allows the imposition of additional duties based upon either the value or the quantity of goods imported into the United States for certain agricultural products. In addition, the subchapter contains provisions which may be proclaimed pursuant to section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended (7 U.S.C. 624). All of the duties provided for in this subchapter are cumulative duties which apply in addition to the duties, if any, otherwise imposed in the tariff schedule on the goods described herein. Unless otherwise stated, the duties or limitations provided for in this subchapter apply until suspended or terminated. Goods of the following countries imported into the United States shall not be subject to any of the provisions, duties or limitations of this subchapter:

Canada, Mexico, Jordan, Singapore, Chile, Australia, Morocco, El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Guatemala, Bahrain, Dominican Republic, Costa Rica, Peru, Oman, Korea, Colombia, Panama
2. The provisions imposing safeguard duties based upon value set forth in this subchapter shall apply to all goods described herein (other than sheep meat, which is not subject to safeguard duties based upon value) except during periods announced in the Federal Register by the Secretary of Agriculture in consultation with the United States Trade Representative as the effective periods of the provisions imposing safeguard duties based upon quantity with respect to such goods, during which period the safeguard duties based upon value shall be deemed suspended and only the safeguard duties based upon quantity shall apply to such goods. Unless the Secretary of Agriculture invokes safeguard duties based upon quantity for specified goods and so announces in the Federal Register (as provided in the first sentence of this note), the tariff provisions providing for such duties shall be deemed suspended and shall not apply to the goods described herein. No safeguard duties based upon quantity shall apply to goods en route on the basis of a contract settled before the effective date of such measures specified in a notice issued by the Secretary of Agriculture.
3. For the purposes of this subchapter, imports of peanuts in the shell shall be charged against the quantities in this note on the basis of 75 kilograms for each 100 kilograms of peanuts in the shell.

TEMPORARY MODIFICATIONS ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO THE AGREEMENT WITH ISRAEL CONCERNING CERTAIN ASPECTS OF TRADE IN AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

XXII

U.S. Notes

1. This subchapter contains temporary modifications of the provisions of the tariff schedule established pursuant to the United States' agreement with Israel concerning certain aspects of trade in agricultural products, dated November 4, 1996. Products of Israel eligible for benefits of the agreement when imported into the customs territory, and described in the provisions of this subchapter for which quantitative limits are prescribed along with rates of duty followed by the symbol "(IL)" are herein provided, are subject to duty under the provisions and at the rates set forth in this subchapter in lieu of the rates provided therefor in chapters 1 through 97 in rates of duty column 1 when entered in quantities that are within the limits provided in this subchapter. Notwithstanding quota provisions elsewhere in the tariff schedule, eligible products of Israel shall be permitted to enter the United States to the extent and at the duty rates herein provided. No goods entered under the quantitative limits set forth in this subchapter shall be counted toward any quota or tariff-rate quota provided for such goods elsewhere in the tariff schedule. No other preferential tariff treatment provided for elsewhere in the tariff schedule shall be afforded to goods described in the provisions of this subchapter. Effective with respect to goods entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after January 1, 2004, no eligible products of Israel entered under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to additional duties under subchapter IV of this chapter. Unless otherwise provided, the provisions and notes in this subchapter are effective as to such products of Israel that are entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, on or after December 4, 1996, and through the close of December 31, 2026, after which date this subchapter shall cease to apply to any goods entered after that date.
2. Wherever goods are described by a provision of this subchapter and accorded a temporary modification of the otherwise applicable duty or quota treatment from chapters 1 through 97 of this schedule, the reporting number, in the absence of specific instructions providing otherwise, shall be the appropriate statistical reporting number for the basic provision (the appropriate provision for classification purposes in chapters 1 through 97) preceded by the appropriate subheading number from this subchapter. For statistical purposes, both the basic provision statistical reporting number and the applicable subheading number from this subchapter shall be collected by the United States Bureau of Census.

Compiler's note: Prior to January 1, 2016, subchapter XIV set forth temporary provisions established pursuant to the U.S. Bahrain Free Trade Agreement (see general note 30 to the tariff schedule). Under the terms of U.S. note 1 to that subchapter, the entire subchapter was deleted at the close of December 31, 2015. However, Presidential Proclamation 9223 of December 23, 2014 (79 F.R. 78681) provided that the effective period of U.S. note 13 to that subchapter and the related heading, 9914.99.20, was extended through the close of July 31, 2016. Accordingly, those provisions were restated in archive versions of this subchapter (see online HTS archive) with pertinent rate line in accordance with that proclamation; format is not identical to 2015 HTS.

MODIFICATIONS ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC-CENTRAL AMERICA-UNITED STATES FREE TRADE AGREEMENT

XXII
99-XV-1

U.S. Notes

1. This subchapter contains temporary tariff provisions established pursuant to the Dominican Republic-Central America-United States Free Trade Agreement. Goods of a party to the Agreement as defined in general note 29(a) to the tariff schedule, and described in subheadings 9915.02.05 through 9915.21.20 of this subchapter for which a rate of duty followed by the symbol "P+" in parentheses is herein provided, are subject to duty at the rate set forth in this subchapter in lieu of the rate provided therefor in chapters 1 through 97. Unless expressly modified, the quantities set forth in U.S. notes 4 through 14 to this subchapter are specifically allocated to such country and year in the note and shall not be reallocated to any other country or year. Goods of a party to the Agreement that are entered into the United States under the provisions of subheadings 9915.02.05 through 9915.21.20 are not subject to any of the provisions, duties or limitations of subchapter IV of chapter 99 of the tariff schedule. Goods of a party to the Agreement as defined in general note 29(a) to the tariff schedule, and described in subheading 9915.50.01 (or in any subsequent subheadings of this subchapter which may hereafter be established), are subject to duty at the special rate of duty set forth therein in lieu of the special rate of duty provided for in chapters 1 through 97 or subchapter II of chapter 98 of the tariff schedule, unless such goods are entered at the appropriate general duty rate provided for in chapters 1 through 97 of the tariff schedule. At the close of December 31, 2025, this subchapter shall be deleted from the tariff schedule and shall cease to apply to any goods entered after that date. [Compiler's note: The provisions of this subchapter have expired but will be retained in the HTS through the close of December 31, 2026, to facilitate Customs processing of entries.]
2. For purposes of this subchapter, the term "goods described in U.S. note 2 to this subchapter" means goods entered under subheadings 9915.02.05 through 9915.21.20, inclusive. Such goods must satisfy the requirements of general note 29(a) to the tariff schedule, except that operations performed in, or material obtained from, the United States shall be considered as if the operations were performed in, and the material was obtained from, a country that is not a party to the Agreement as defined in general note 29(a) to the tariff schedule. For purposes of determining which country-specific tariff-rate quota applies to such a good, the nonpreferential rules of origin used in the normal course of trade shall be applied.
3. Whenever goods are classifiable in a provision of chapters 1 through 97 of the tariff schedule (referred to herein as "basic provision") for which the applicable duty rate is set forth in a subheading in this subchapter, the reporting number for such goods, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, shall be the appropriate statistical reporting number for the basic provision (the appropriate provision for classification purposes in chapters 1 through 97) preceded by the subheading number from this subchapter. For statistical purposes, both the basic provision statistical reporting number and the applicable subheading number from this subchapter shall be collected by the United States Bureau of Census.

SUBCHAPTER XVII

MODIFICATIONS ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO THE UNITED STATES-PERU TRADE PROMOTION AGREEMENT

XXII

U.S. Notes

1. This subchapter contains modifications of the provisions of the tariff schedule established pursuant to the United States-Peru Trade Promotion Agreement. Goods of Peru, entered under the terms of general note 32 to the tariff schedule, and described in subheadings 9917.04.10 through 9917.04.69 of this subchapter for which a rate of duty followed by the symbol "(PE)" is herein provided, are subject to duty at the rate set forth in this subchapter in lieu of the rate provided therefore in chapters 1 through 97. For purposes of this subchapter, notwithstanding any other provisions of the tariff schedule, the term "goods of Peru, under the terms of general note 32 to the tariff schedule" means goods of Peru that satisfy the requirements of general note 32 to the tariff schedule, except that operations performed in, or material obtained from, the United States shall be considered as if the operations were performed in, and the material was obtained from, a country that is not a party to the Agreement as defined in general note 32 to the tariff schedule. Such goods of Peru entered into the United States under the provisions of subheadings 9917.04.10 through 9917.04.69 are not subject to any of the provisions, duties or limitations of subchapter IV of chapter 99 of the tariff schedule. Unless otherwise provided, U.S. notes 3 through 5 and subheadings 9917.04.10 through 9917.04.69 of this subchapter are effective as to such goods of Peru entered, under general note 32 to the tariff schedule, through the close of December 31, 2025 and shall be deleted from the tariff schedule at the close of such date.
[Compiler's note: The provisions of this subchapter have expired but will be retained in the HTS through the close of December 31, 2026, to facilitate Customs processing of entries.]
2. Whenever goods are classifiable under a provision for which the modification of the applicable United States-Peru Trade Promotion Agreement rate of duty is provided for in a subheading in this subchapter, the reporting number, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, shall be the appropriate statistical reporting number for the basic provision (the appropriate provision for classification purposes in chapters 1 through 97) preceded by the subheading number of this subchapter. For statistical purposes, both the basic provision statistical reporting number and the applicable subheading number from this subchapter shall be collected by the United States Bureau of Census.
3. (a) The aggregate quantity of originating goods of Peru entered under subheading 9917.04.10 in any calendar year shall not exceed the quantity specified below for that year.

SUBCHAPTER XVIII

MODIFICATIONS ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO THE UNITED STATES-COLOMBIA TRADE PROMOTION AGREEMENT

XXII
99-XVIII-1

U.S. Notes

1. This subchapter contains modifications of the provisions of the tariff schedule established pursuant to the United States-Colombia Trade Promotion Agreement. Goods of Colombia, entered under the terms of general note 34 to the tariff schedule, and described in subheadings 9918.02.01 through 9918.24.11 of this subchapter for which a rate of duty followed by the symbol "(CO)" is herein provided, are subject to duty at the rate set forth in this subchapter in lieu of the rate provided therefor in chapters 1 through 97. Originating goods of Colombia entered into the United States under the provisions of subheadings 9918.02.01 through 9918.24.11 are not subject to any of the provisions, duties or limitations of subchapter IV of chapter 99 of the tariff schedule. Unless otherwise provided U.S. notes 3 through 9 and subheadings 9918.02.01 through 9918.24.11 of this subchapter are effective as to such goods of Colombia entered, under general note 34 to the tariff schedule, through the close of December 31, 2026 and shall be deleted from the tariff schedule at the close of such date. For purposes of this subchapter, goods are "originating goods of Colombia" eligible for the benefits accorded to goods entered under the quantitative limitations set forth in U.S. notes 3 through 9 of this subchapter if they satisfy the requirements set forth in general note 34(o) to the tariff schedule, except that operations performed in, or material obtained from, the United States shall be considered as if the operations were performed in, and the material was obtained from, a country that is not a party to the agreement identified in the first sentence to this note.
2. Whenever goods are classifiable under a provision for which the modification of the applicable United States-Colombia Trade Promotion Agreement rate of duty is provided for in a subheading in this subchapter, the reporting number, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, shall be the appropriate statistical reporting number for the basic provision (the appropriate provision for classification purposes in chapters 1 through 97) preceded by the subheading number of this subchapter. For statistical purposes, both the basic provision statistical reporting number and the applicable subheading number from this subchapter shall be collected by the United States Bureau of Census.

1. This subchapter contains modifications of the provisions of the tariff schedule established pursuant to the United States-Korea Free Trade Agreement. Goods of Korea, under the terms of general note 33 to the tariff schedule, entered and described in any of subheadings 9920.04.10 through 9920.85.02 of this subchapter for which a rate of duty followed by the symbol "(KR)" is herein provided, are subject to duty at the rate set forth in this subchapter in lieu of the rate provided in chapters 1 through 97. For purposes of this subchapter, notwithstanding any other provisions of the tariff schedule, the term "goods of Korea, under the terms of general note 33 to the tariff schedule" means goods of Korea that satisfy the requirements of general note 33 to the tariff schedule, except that operations performed in, or material obtained from, the United States shall be considered as if the operations were performed in, and the material was obtained from, a country that is not a party to the Agreement as defined in general note 33 to the tariff schedule. Such goods of Korea entered into the United States under the provisions of subheadings 9920.04.10 through 9920.85.02 are not subject to any of the provisions, duties or limitations of subchapter IV of chapter 99 of the tariff schedule. Unless otherwise provided, the provisions of this subchapter are effective as to such goods of Korea, under general note 33 to the tariff schedule, entered through the close of December 31, 2026 and shall be deleted from the tariff schedule at the close of such date.
2. Whenever goods are classifiable under a provision for which the modification of the applicable United States-Korea Free Trade Agreement rate of duty is provided for in a subheading in this subchapter, the reporting number, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, shall be the appropriate statistical reporting number for the basic provision (the appropriate provision for classification purposes in chapters 1 through 97) preceded by the subheading number of this subchapter. For statistical purposes, both the basic provision statistical reporting number and the applicable subheading number from this subchapter shall be collected by the United States Bureau of Census.
3. The aggregate quantity of originating goods of Korea entered under subheading 9920.04.10 in any calendar year shall not exceed the quantity specified below for that year.

Year	Quantity (Metric tons)	Year	Quantity (Metric Tons)

ANNEX A

Schedule C - Classification of Country and Territory Designations for U.S. Foreign Trade Statistics

Schedule C contains the country and territory designations for use in compiling the U.S. export and import statistics. These designations should be shown in all cases where statistical information is required. The first part of this schedule contains the country designations arranged in numeric order by continent and listed in sequence within each continent generally from north to south and west to east. Abbreviated country designations, which are used in lieu of complete country names in some foreign trade reports, are also shown. The second part contains a listing in alphabetical arrangement of the countries, territories, etc., with their numeric codes. The names of the entities listed are generally the conventional spellings as approved by the U.S. Board on Geographic Names.

Revisions to Schedule C will be announced in the form of "special notices" to data users, as Public Bulletins to Schedule B, Statistical Classification of Domestic and Foreign Commodities Exported from the United States, and as supplements to the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States Annotated for statistical purposes (HTS). HTS also includes a list of International Standard (ISO) Country Codes to be used by importers to report country of origin.

Schedule D - Classification of U.S. Customs Districts and Ports for U.S. Foreign Trade Statistics

Please see the U.S. Customs and Border Protection's website for the most current listing of Code Numbers, Customs Districts and Ports. (See <https://www.cbp.gov>.)

Schedule D is included in the HTS for the convenience of the trading community. It lists U.S. Customs and Border Protection districts, the ports included under each district, and the corresponding numeric codes that must be reported for U.S. foreign trade statistics. Thus, this Schedule contains a code for each official U.S. Customs district and port, with some additional codes provided to meet specific compiling requirements of the foreign trade statistics program. The headquarters port for each district is underlined.

Some Customs ports in this list show two codes. Exporters and importers may report either code. The first part of this Schedule presents the Customs districts and ports arranged in numerical order by code, while the second part lists the ports in alphabetical order.

Because there can be a time lag in reflecting in the HTS all updates to this Schedule, users are encouraged to go to the CBP or Census web sites:

- a. Go to www.cbp.gov or <https://www.dhs.gov/locate-port-entry-air-land-sea> to check current information and seek assistance, including how to contact ports.
- b. In addition, we note that revisions to Schedule D are announced in the form of "special notices" to data users, as Public Bulletins to Schedule B, Statistical Classification of

China Tariffs

(Last Updated July 28, 2026)

This list is a reference for the additional duties on products of China pursuant to the section 301 investigation of China's acts, policies, and practices related to technology transfer, intellectual property, and innovation.

This list does not include the headings for the additional duties pursuant to section 301 investigations of acts, policies, and practices of various economies related to the failure of each economy to impose and effectively enforce a prohibition on the importation of goods produced with forced labor. For information on these Section 301 duties, see U.S. note 52, subchapter III, chapter 99.

The table below lists the HTS subheadings in chapters 01 through 97 that are covered by the additional tariffs on products of China under section 301 and the applicable HTS heading in subchapter III of chapter 99. For information on these additional tariffs, please see U.S. notes 20 and 31 and the related headings and subheadings of subchapter III of chapter 99.

Search for an 8-digit subheading of interest: if it appears on this list, products in that subheading are subject to an additional duty under section 301 if they are also products of China. Product exclusions granted by the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) are found in U.S. note 20 to subchapter III of chapter 99.

Additional information may be obtained from the USTR section 301 hotline – (202) 395-5725. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) determines all matters relating to tariff treatment of imported goods and their country of origin. CBP can be consulted for procedural or other questions at traderemedy@cbp.dhs.gov. You may also wish to seek an electronic ruling on classification or country of origin from CBP at erulings.cbp.gov.

This table is provided for reference only. Users should also consult the HTS and the related Federal Register notices for the official list of covered products.
